Every woman desires possessions which will receive the approval of her associates.

Gratifying, therefore, is the enthusiastic sanction accorded by her friends to her Cadillac.

Everywhere she hears that whole-hearted and unreserved praise which voices the esteem with which Cadillac is so universally regarded.

Her own appreciation and her friends' appraisal of Cadillac character increase progressively with each successive day of acquaintanceship.

There is an ever-growing wonder at the ease of steering and the extraordinary simplicity of control.

Nor is lesser wonder excited by the car's marvelous dependability.
